BROCHURE PUBLISHED APRIL 2011

4 & 5-STAR LUXURY RIVER CRUISES ON THE RHONE, DOURO, SEINE, RHINE & MOSELLE

WELCOME TO CRUISE IN RIVER CRUISES!

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our new dedicated Cruise In River Cruise brochure for 2011/12. It gives me great pleasure to introduce many of you for the first time to our own world of river cruising. It's not a stuffy world. It's fun. You're certain to go home from one of our river cruises having not only enjoyed the experience, but with a host of new-found friends for life! Of the cruises featured in this brochure, I have personally experienced many of the ships and many of the itineraries. Which itineraries are best, I hear you ask. There's no straight answer. They're all very different. Let me expand on those I have done. The Rhine is a long, working river and it is busy year round with commercial traffic. It flows through industrial areas especially on the river section between Amsterdam and Dusseldorf. The ultimate Rhine, for me, begins at Dusseldorf or Cologne and goes fully upstream to Basel in Switzerland. I go time and time again! My favourite towns and villages are Bonn, Königswinter, Rudesheim, Braubach, Strasbourg and obviously Basel to name a few. Then there's the Douro River, in Portugal. Peaceful, fascinating, interesting, hot and above all relaxing. I've cruised it twice, once on the beautiful new Douro Cruiser and once on Invicta, a smaller, homely, older vessel. There are highlights you'll never forget: dinner at the Alpendurada Monastery; atmospheric Pinhao; the Vintage House Hotel. And of course the tours and excursions. A short cruise of 4-nights is perfect time to see the whole of the navigable river. That's a bonus, because you can spend 3 nights in Porto or Lisbon to make a week of it. You'll love every minute. To me, 7 nights overall is just a wonderful experience. Porto is superb. Lisbon is large and amazing. So what else? I've done Venice on city-breaks and sea cruises but never on a river vessel around the lagoon. If I stayed there in a hotel for 4 nights would I be able to do full board including wine with meals on £600 per person? No! When I do the Rhone in August 2011 I'll tell you what it was like but I'm sure it will be marvellous! And what can I say about a Paris cruise at Christmas time? I'll always go to Paris because every season tells a different story! While you enjoy taking one of our cruises, no doubt we will be looking for more exciting things to do later in 2012 and 2013! All of us at Cruise In look forward to greeting you onboard one of our charters in the near future. Welcome to the world of Cruise In!

WHY CHOOSE A CRUISE IN RIVER CRUISE?

You could sum it up in three words – value, experience and quality. We're talking sheer jaw-dropping value, without any reduction in levels of luxury, or any corner-cutting. We only use 4 and 5-star ships. In fact, we use the same ships, with the same staff, the same menus, the same service, the same itineraries as companies who charge much higher rates. So how do we do it at the prices we offer? Well, for one thing, we offer optional tours. This gives you the choice of doing what you want to do. This brings the price down. We never forget that a river cruise is a river cruise. As you may know, many well-known river cruise companies charge over £2000 per person for a week on rivers such as the Rhône! For that money you could buy an ocean-going luxury cruise visiting several countries for two weeks! We offer, on all the cruises we sell, not just the best value, but often the lowest prices you can find anywhere. We work hard to do this. In fact we often go beyond the call of duty by seeking out all sorts of add-ons and other attractions to help you get the most from your time and money. We wouldn't send you on a cruise we wouldn't go on ourselves! Cruises that are not good enough for us are not good enough for you. Value is in our blood. There'll never ever be anything cheap about us. But there'll always be something fantastically inexpensive. That's why we say, our prices are the best kept secret in the cruising world! That brings us on to experience. We sail most of the major cruising rivers of Europe. The Rhine, Rhone, Seine, Danube, Moselle, Douro. Many of our cruises are exclusive charters. We accompany many of the cruises, often organising our own tours and providing our own evening musical entertainment. On many of our cruises we specialise in top UK entertainment onboard, with the Cruise In Band and guest musicians, something unheard of in the river cruise industry. Sometimes we even bring on speciality music from the region we're sailing through - as if 4, 5, or 6 of the best UK musicians isn't enough! What other river cruise line could dream of supplying all this? And all on 4 and 5-star ships. Value, experience, quality, and personal attention to detail. That's why we call ourselves Your Personal Cruise Consultancy. Now, let's direct you to some of the superb, unique and wonderful value river cruise offers you'll find in the following pages.

REGUA • PORTO

Four nights on the River Douro is the perfect length of cruise for this river. The Douro rises near Madrid and flows westward across Spain and northern Portugal to the Atlantic. The river valley is exceptionally beautiful. Rambling vineyards and charming native farms called quintas, cling to the steep sides of the valley creating an incomparable backdrop to one of Europe's most unspoiled regions. Though it is the third longest river of the Iberian Peninsula, the Douro is only navigable in Portugal between Peso da Régua and Porto. This means any cruise longer than four days, a conventional week for example, means you find yourself filling time. In fact, Porto, the beautiful 'City of Bridges' with its heritage-designated medieval city centre, is so fascinating that it repays a longer stay in the city itself – see the next page for more details. A word about the name Porto. There is often confusion between the names Porto and Oporto. In Portuguese, the city is written with a definite article as, 'o Porto'. The English translation of this is, 'the port'. As a result, the city became known in English as Oporto. But its proper name in English, is Porto. So, having travelled to Porto in the morning we check in at the Vila Nova de Gaia Quay and embark at 14.00 on to the Douro Cruiser. There will be welcome drinks and we'll sail to Bitetos, our first stop. In the evening we'll dine on traditional local fare at the beautiful Alpendurada Monastery, with its breathtaking views of the valley below. We'll no doubt taste some of the wonderful local wines from nearby vineyards. Including of course, port, 'the world's finest fortified wine'. Returning to the ship we overnight on board at Bitetos. The following day we sail to the peaceful town of Régua. Backed by the spectacular Serra do Marão mountains and overlooking the river valley, the town is the official centre of the port wine region. From here an optional tour may be taken to Lamego, a delightful baroque town with a central square laid out as a public garden and surrounded by elegant 17th-century buildings. In the afternoon we sail to Pinhao where we overnight. The following day there's an optional tour to the Mateus Palace. We say optional, but it's really a must! We sail on to Barca d'Alva for a Portuguese barbecue and live folk music. Next day we return to Regua where we'll overnight. The following morning we return to Porto for disembarkation and to say farewell to the Douro, one of Europe's most beautiful 'secrets'.

PORTO or LISBON AND THE DOURO RIVER VALLEY

3 NIGHTS LISBON OR PORTO & 4 NIGHTS ON 5-STAR DOURO CRUISER

7, 14 JULY • 4 AUGUST 2011

3 NIGHTS IN LISBON OR PORTO B&B PLUS

PORTO • BITETOS • REGUA • PINHAO • BARCA D'ALVA • REGUA • PORTO

As if the prospect of four nights on a wonderful cruise wasn't enough, you might like to add on an additional three nights in Lisbon or Porto to make a wonderful seven night trip! You may like to know the staff at Cruise In rate this one of the best ever river cruises!

Lisbon

The alpha city of Lisbon is absolutely beautiful. An alpha, or global city, as you probably know is one deemed important to the global economy. Lisbon is the Barcelona of Portugal and tourism is central to its economy. Everywhere you look there are sights to delight. The mixture of old and new architecture is brilliant. The tiled buildings and the distinctive 'tiled' pavements are unique. The tourist buses are great value. And the trams are sensational – if you like trams! If you sit near the doors you can watch the local urchins hitching a ride on the boarding step, clinging on by their fingertips! Health and safety eat your heart out! The trains too, are cheap, cheerful, clean and punctual. You can take the train to nearby Estoril, with its beautiful beaches, and from there it's a leisurely stroll along the promenade to the charming resort of Cascais. And, of course, everything is usually bathed in glorious sunshine. If your Portuguese is a little rusty, don't worry, the locals will help you out. Lisbon, the perfect city break before a river cruise.

Porto

Porto, Portugal's second largest city, is full of endless charm. It's like a 'Lisbon in the North' but a tenth of the size. There's so much for visitors to see. The trams, again rather like in Lisbon, are just brilliant. As you can tell by now, we love the place. Just along the coast there are holiday resorts such as Espinho with its wonderful cosmopolitan beaches. There are busy ports like Matosinhos, where you can eat the splendid seafood. There are traditional fishing towns like Póvoa de Varzim. Inland, there's the quaint charm of Amarante, with its 17th century mansions overlooking the river. Amarante is famous for a kind of sweet egg pastry called 'papos de anjo' - angel bellies - you simply have to try those! In Vila Nova de Gaia, you can visit and taste the different varieties of Port in the lodges where the wine is blended and aged. The whole Porto area is busy and prosperous, but you can also drive along many calm roads with wonderful views over the river and the rugged, unspoilt coastline.

EIGHT CHRISTMAS MARKETS SPECTACULAR 9 NIGHTS • 21 – 30 NOVEMBER 2011 BOTH CRUISES PLUS ONE NIGHT REIMS

COLOGNE • KOBLENZ • WEISBADEN • RÜDESHEIM • BONN • COLOGNE
REIMS • PARIS

This promises to be not just Cruise In's best Christmas Markets trip ever, but also the best to be offered by any cruise or travel agent in the UK! We're proud, in fact we're over the moon, to be presenting a trip that's so special it has little chance of being repeated! In cruising terms, this is a 'back-to-back', joining two perfect cruise experiences together, one after the other, and adding a wonderful night in Reims - actually a 24-hour break - between cruises. Think about it. One moment you're cruising on the Rhine for five nights, then changing countries to experience one of the finest northern cities of France and finishing with three superb nights in magical Paris, no less! You get to try two different types of river vessels, including a line new to us, CroisiEurope. CroisiEurope is one of France's major river cruise lines. They have a fleet of 27 'Prestige' category recently-built vessels, all with Veritas certification, and all maintained and renovated each year. The ships are spacious, light, welcoming and refined. They operate on the most beautiful rivers and coastal waters in Europe. Before we get to Paris, there's another treat. Every year, the vibrant city of Reims holds one of the largest Christmas markets in Europe. The locals really know how to celebrate. So they should.

Reims reputedly was the site, in the year 496, of the very first French Christmas celebration! Since then, apart from a few intervals for world wars and what not, Reims has laid on a huge Christmas party. Reims' Christmas Village market combines street entertainment, magicians, carol singers, and decorated wooden chalet stalls selling everything you can think of: presents and gifts of every kind, tree decorations, cards, wrapping papers, baubles, bangles and beads, more reindeers than you can shake a stick at, and a vast selection of wonderful, mouth-watering foods and drinks. The market is held in the tree-lined, pedestrianised streets of the city centre, complete with open-air skating rink, all lit with thousands of lights. Naturally Santa will be well in evidence with no doubt the usual fireworks, chef demonstrations and other delights. Unmissable! It will seem a shame to leave, but leave we must by 3pm. Yet we're only an hour from magical Paris, with your CroisiEurope cruise ship moored right by the Eiffel Tower! Here you will have the chance to unwind with two days in Paris at your leisure, or shop 'til you drop including yet more Christmas markets. What more could you ask for? It wouldn't surprise us if you're not coming home for a rest. Don't delay, book today!

THE ULTIMATE RHINE AND SWITZERLAND 8 NIGHTS 4-STAR MPS STATENDAM 16 - 24 APRIL 2012

COLOGNE • KÖNIGSWINTER • ANDERNACH • KOBLENZ • RUDESHEIM
MAINZ • WORMS • SPEYER • STRASBOURG • BREISACH • BASEL

A superb Cologne to Basel river cruise on the elegant 4-Star MPS Statendam, one of the largest ships sailing on the European rivers. The carefully chosen itinerary is magical, based on our experience of the Rhine and the bewitching charm of Switzerland. Boarding Statendam in the afternoon, we sail south, passing Bonn, the birthplace of Beethoven, to Königswinter where we overnight. The town is overlooked by the famous 1,053 ft Drachenfels, with its striking silhouette and ruined castle at the summit. Legend has it that Siegfried - the hero of the Nibelungenlied - killed a dragon living in a cave in the mountain, then bathed in its blood to become invulnerable. Hence, the mountain's name 'Dragon's Rock' - Drachenfels. The next day we move on to spend a morning in Koblenz, at the confluence of the Rhine and the Moselle. From Koblenz we sail in the afternoon, past the famous Lorelei Rock, to overnight in Rudesheim, one of the most picturesque towns on the Rhine. The following day we make an early start for Mainz, with its old town full of fascinating shops. It's also the starting point of an optional morning tour to the wonderful, spectacular Heidelberg. We'll visit the fabulous castle overlooking the Neckar river valley, and on to the beautiful old town with its famed town gates and market place. Worms, home to the renowned Leibfraumilch wine and its famous Nibelungen Bridge, is equally fascinating. The following morning we spend in Speyer, one of Germany's oldest cities. Here we get the chance of an optional tour to Bad Dürkheim, a health resort and old wine-growing town. Then it's on to spend a full morning in Strasbourg giving time to visit the magnificent cathedral and square. In Strasbourg we can visit the magnificent cathedral and square, or take a leisurely guided canal cruise. Our optional afternoon tour gives us a wonderful chance to visit the Alsace region as well as visiting Colmar before rejoining Statendam at Breisach. And the finale? Two full days in Basel, Switzerland! A chance to visit so many places, many just an hour away such as Lake Lucerne, Zurich or a little further, Lake Thun, Interlaken and the mountain railways. We mustn't forget Basel however. You will delight in this lovely city if you want to relax and unwind. All too soon, it's over. A memorable holiday and a cruise to remember forever! And so to Basel where Statendam will become your floating hotel for the next two days. After we arrive, the remainder of the day will be yours to enjoy the delights of the city at your leisure. If you want to take it easy and relax on board, feel free. As in any city, what you do is up to you. And in Basel it's bound to be brilliant.
